WMHW - Vendor Agreement/ P. 2

Taxes: Vendor assumes their own liability for collecting and paying Virginia sales tax.

Displays: Vendors may not extend their allocated space with use of boards, tables, etc. and goods may not extend into aisles. The displays should be neat, attractive and tasteful (this show is being promoted to the general public as a family friendly event). The management reserves the right to direct a Vendor to remove items the management feels are in bad taste. The management also reserves the right to remove any Vendor refusing to abide by the rules and regulations relating to the proper functioning of the show and to the above with no refund of table rental fees. Vendors should keep display fully stocked until the end of the show. If Vendor packs up early on Sunday you will not be asked back to the show. Signs, banners and displays may not be affixed to any part of the hotel.

Special Requirements: Please note any special requirements on a separate sheet. Electricity will be an additional $10 per table as needed as per the Hotel. Special requirements must be made before September 1, 2009.
